(b) the said certificate shall not by itself entitle the holder thereof to any other rights mentioned in the Immigration Regulations."

S.L. 217.04.

Substitutes regulation 5 of the principal regulations.

5. Regulation 5 of the principal regulations shall be substituted by the following:

"Application.

5. (1) An individual, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency for the issuance of a certificate under these regulations, in such form as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may require and by paying a non-refundable administrative fee of five thousand five hundred euro (€5,500).

(2) Where it is established that the individual mentioned in sub-regulation (1) qualifies as a beneficiary, the Malta Residence and Visa Agency shall determine in writing that such individual is to be issued a certificate under these regulations.

(3) Upon such determination in writing in terms of sub-regulation (2) and prior to the issuance of the certificate, the main applicant, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person, shall pay the contribution less the non-refundable administrative fee already paid upon presentation of the application, and present the necessary title to a qualifying property, and a certificate to a qualifying investment, and any other document as may be required from time to time by notice issued by Malta Residence and Visa Agency:

Provided that no certificate shall be issued to the main applicant or any of his dependants even in the case that Malta Residence and Visa Agency has issued its approval in principle in terms of these regulations, unless the conditions above referred to are satisfied to the full satisfaction of Malta Residence and Visa Agency.

(4) Following the death of a beneficiary, in exceptional circumstances, Malta Residence and Visa Agency shall be empowered to determine that the certificate issued in terms of sub-regulation (3) shall be issued to a dependant of that deceased beneficiary. Such certificate shall be issued once the said dependant provides proof to Malta Residence and Visa Agency that all the requirements of these regulations are satisfied in such manner as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may determine.

(5) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency for the issuance of a certificate under these regulations, in such form as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may require, for any dependant as referred to in the definition in paragraph (c) regulation (2) who is born or adopted after the appointed day, subject to a successful due diligence check.

(6) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency to include on the Main Beneficiary certificate issued under these regulations, and against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000), the spouse of the beneficiary's or his spouse's approved child being a child who would have been previously accepted as a dependant in the residence certificate, subject to a successful due diligence check.

(7) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency to include on the Main Beneficiary certificate issued under these regulations, and against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000), any dependant who, after the appointed day, is born to, or adopted by an approved child as defined in the precedent sub-regulation (6) or his spouse, where such spouse is herself already a beneficiary under these regulations according to sub-regulation (6), subject to a successful due diligence check:

Provided that an approved dependant, being a child of the main applicant or spouse, who gets married, his or her direct dependants will not derive residency rights under these regulations automatically. In this respect Malta Residence and Visa Agency will consider residency under these regulations, against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000) per dependant and subject to a successful due diligence check.

(8) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency to include on the Main Beneficiary certificate issued under these regulations, and against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000), the spouse or minor/child of a dependant as defined in regulation 2 of the principal regulations and subject to a successful due diligence check."
